International Invitation Triples – update 21st Mar '11

As Easter time at Onehunga draws closer we bring to you another team preview for the inaugural $20,000 AllTeams Onehunga International Invitation Triples. A real family affair this time; along with the Skoglund's perhaps one of the most famous of NZ Bowls names – the Scott's. Brothers Terry & Jim are both former NZ reps. Terry is now a NZ selector & recently picked cousin Shaun to make his long-awaited debut for NZ against Australia in the Trans Tasman.

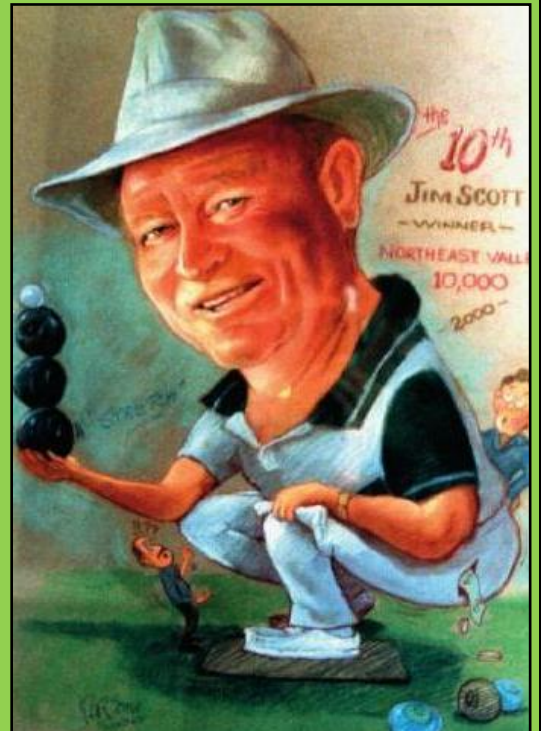

TERRY SCOTT, SHAUN SCOTT, JIM SCOTT

Terry Scott – NZ Champion
North East Valley BC, Dunedin
New Zealand Singles Winner '90
New Zealand Fours Winner '77
NZ Club Champ Fours Winner '03
Former New Zealand Rep

Shaun Scott – NZ Champion
North East Valley BC, Dunedin
New Zealand Singles Winner '11
NZ Club Champ Singles Winner '08
NZ Club Champ Fours Winner '03
NZ VS Australia – Trans Tasman 2011

Jim Scott – New Zealand Champion
North East Valley BC, Dunedin
Commonwealth Games – Fours – Silver '82
World Championships – Fours – Silver '84
World Championships – Triples – Bronze '84
New Zealand Singles & Fours Winner

This one's for the old-school – Terry & Jim have won NZ titles & worn the Silver Fern before a lot of the other players in the field had been born!
Would be hard pressed to find a more experienced combination or a triple that has played together so often. The Scott's have an uncanny understanding of each other's play & reading each other's game.
Current NZ Singles Champion Shaun "Scud" Scott has now tasted International bowls after stringing together consistent results at Nationals, NZ Club Champs & North East Valley Singles for some years now.
Along with Steve O'Driscoll the 3 Scotts have made the final of the National 4's twice in the last 4 years. Any team taking the Scott's lightly does so at their peril.
